

Speakers

Dan Bobo

Detective Sergeant Dan Bobo has worked in law enforcement for over 20 years. He currently specializes in investigating crimes against children. Working for the Knox County Ohio Sheriff's Office, he also serves on the Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force and the FBI Exploited Child Task Force.

the board of MK Safety Net US.

Faith Ingraham is a survivor of childhood sexual abuse, and has been serving with her husband in pastoral ministry since 1984. She is an author, speaker, life coach and strong advocate against domestic violence and abuse.

Patricia Lewis

Patricia (Tricia) Lewis is licensed to teach both elementary school and special education and has 14 years of experience in various educational settings. She is wife to Randy Lewis and mother to five boys. She enjoys gardening, puzzles, reading, and learning more about a variety of things.

Crystal Sayre

Crystal Sayre is a Licensed Professional Mental Health Counselor who currently works at Cedar Ridge Behavioral Health Solutions in Cambridge, Ohio. She graduated from Ashland Theological Seminary with a master's degree in Clinical Mental Health Counseling. Crystal's love in counseling is supporting parents and children to experience better connections with each other. Her focus is trauma-informed care of all ages of clients. Crystal's desire is that every person and client experience the love of Jesus when they are with her.

Sasha Sheridan

Detective Sasha Sheridan grew up in Nebraska and moved to Pennsylvania in 1989. After graduating from University of Pittsburgh with Administration in Justice Degree, she served as a corrections counselor in Allegheny County. She then became a Pennsylvania State Trooper for 20 years, stationed at PSP Lamar Barracks. Detective Sheridan currently works for Clinton County District Attorney David Strouse as County Detective specializing in Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault.

Cheryl Cirilo

Born and raised in Lewistown, PA, Cheryl Cirilo worked for 30 years as a social worker in private child welfare before joining Pennsylvania's Department of Human Services as a Human Services Program Representative in the Southeastern Regional Office of Children, Youth and Families. She holds degrees in Bible and Social Work, and received her Master's in Social Work from Temple University.

Linda Crockett

Linda Crockett is the founder and director of Safe Communities (www.safecommunitiespa.org), a nonprofit working to prevent the sexual abuse of children and provide hope and healing to abuse survivors. She currently co-leads the Plain Communities Task Force of Lancaster County; the Trauma-Informed Care for Survivors of Sexual Violence Work Group as part of the PA Governor's Office of Advocacy and Reform; and serves as a member of Lancaster County C.A.S.E. Task Force on ending child sexual abuse and exploitation. Linda is the author of The Deepest Wound: How a Journey to El Salvador Led to Healing from Mother-Daughter Incest.

Hope Anne Dueck

Raised in a plain community and observing multiple cases of child abuse, Hope Anne has a burning passion to protect children and the vulnerable from abuse. After helping create a non-profit in the 90's that supported survivors, Hope Anne eventually went on to co-found A Better Way with Wesley Yoder in 2017 to provide education about prevention of abuse, as well as supporting survivors through advocacy.

Dale and Faith Ingraham

Dale Ingraham graduated from Practical Bible Training School in Johnson City, NY in 1983. After serving as a pastor for almost 40 years, he now works full-time in the ministry of Speaking Truth in Love. He is the author of Tear Down This Wall of Silence, and also serves on

